

Costuming for Annie, Jr.

All orphans:

short sleeved or long sleeved blouse with collar (not an Oxford shirt)

-any color

A pinafore in drab colors with patches; the Drama Club will provide this, but we will need help making enough for all orphans

Dark or white socks

Black flats or dance shoes

Coats and skirts for NYC (they will not be orphans in this scene)

A party dress for Scene 11--this should be a little girl's type of dress as was worn in the 30s or 40s

Orphans should wear dark shorts or lollipops under costumes because orphans will be dancing and will be on the floor

Everyone in NYC will need a hat and a coat. The men's hats can be fedoras. We have many fedoras. All coats should be dressy cloth coats appropriate to the 1930s. Please look in your closets and look at thrift stores. If you see multiple ones at thrift stores that might fit your daughter's friends, please buy them if they are inexpensive. Girls may also wear kerchiefs or knit hats for NYC.
